War Office, Auguſt 17, 1756.

On Saturday laſt His Majeſty diſmiſſed Lieutenant General Thomas Fowke from His Service.

Liſbon, July 9. Laſt Sunday being the Anniverſary of the Birth of the Infant Don Pedro, the King's Brother, there was a ſplendid Appearance at Court, which is ſtill kept under Tents near Belem, the Palace that is building of Wood not being as yet finiſhed. On Friday laſt we had a ſevere Shock of an Earthquake, which laſted near a Minute, but it happily went off without doing much Damage. The Fleet bound for Maragnan put to Sea a few Days ago with a fair Wind, and was convoyed to a certain Diſtance by two Men of War.

Copenhagen,

[Price Two-Pence.]

Copenhagen, July 30. On Saturday laſt the Daniſh Squadron of Men of War ſailed from the Sound on its Return to the Baltick. Yeſterday the Frederick and Louiſa, belonging to our India Company, arrived in our Road from Tranquebar, having on board a very valuable Cargo.

Berlin, Aug. 3. The King has conferred on M. de Wuthenow, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Foot of Kallnheim, the Poſt of Commandant of Pillau. M. de Borck, Lieutenant General of his Majeſty's Armies, having obtained Leave to quit the Service, his Regiment is given to M. Zaſtrow. 'Tis ſaid the King intends to ſet out in a ſhort Time for Sileſia.

Dreſden, Auguſt 5. The King has ordered a Number of Workmen to be taken from the Mines of Freyberg, and employed about ſtrengthening the Fortifications of Konigſtein. By our laſt Advices from Bohemia, the Preparations for forming the Camp near Colin, go on with great Diligence; and we are likewiſe informed, that another Camp is alſo forming near Holliſchau in Moravia.

Dreſden, Aug. 8. The Cannoniers, who have been preparing Cartridges, &c. for this Month paſt, at the Arſenal in this City, returned laſt Wedneſday to their Garriſon at Freyberg. They are now employed in repairing the Pontoons. 'Tis aſſured that the whole Artillery in the Arſenal will be removed from hence to Konigſtein, which Place is now ſtrongly fortifying. We hear from Bohemia, that the Auſtrians, who are forming a Camp there, have entirely prohibited the Exportation of Corn, and all Kinds of Proviſions whatſoever, out of that Country.

Hague, Aug. 10. We have received Advice from Dieren, that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, and her Children, arrived there Yeſterday in perfect Health.

Bruſſels, Aug. 13. According to the laſt Advices received by the French Court from Quebec, it appears that a contagious Diſtemper had broke out on board the Leopard, a 64 Gun Ship, belonging to the Squadron that ſailed from Breſt on the 26th of March, with the Reinforcements for Canada, under the Command of M. de Moncalm. The two Captains, ſeveral ſubaltern Officers, and a great Number of Sailors and private Soldiers were carried off by this Diſtemper, the Conſequences of which were ſo much apprehended, that the greateſt Precautions were uſed at Quebec, to prevent the ſpreading of the Infection, and the Ship even condemned to be burnt with every Thing on board. Letters from Breſt adviſe, that the Diadem, a new Ship of 74 Guns, had ſo bent her Keel in Launching, that ſhe is deemed quite unfit for Service.

War Office, Auguſt 10, 1756.

And His Majeſty is likewiſe pleaſed to declare, that, it is His Royal Intention, they ſhall continue in the ſame Regiments, in which they now are, without being moleſted, or claimed by the Officers of the reſpective Corps to which they did formerly belong.

Advertiſements.

IN my Paſſage from Surinam to Barbadoes, in July 1755, my Ship's Carpenter, William Blair, was ſeized with a violent Fever, attended with Purging and Vomiting; he ſoon grew delirious; I gave him a whole Paper of Dr. James's Fever-Powder, (which is ſold at Mr. Newbery's in St. Paul's Church Yard.) It purged, vomited, and ſweat him very much; in ſix Hours after I gave him another Doſe, which entirely removed the Diſorder. William Kemp, an old Sailor, 60 Years of Age, was ſeized in the ſame Manner, and had the ſame bad Symptoms, but upon taking one Paper of the Powder, which operated much in the Manner above mentioned, he recovered.

London, Jan. 26, 1756. James Lundin, Captain of the Africa.

N. B. As Surinam is much ſubject to this Sort of Fever, the Engliſh and Dutch Merchants who Trade thither, would do well to furniſh their Correſpondents with this Powder, for by its Means many Lives would undoubtedly be ſaved.
